Places to Eat and Takeaways

Fish and Chips

There is a Fish & Chip Van in Hartington on Friday evenings from 4.30pm for about 3 hours.

Tea Junction (walking distance) <http://www.teajunctionhulmeend.co.uk/>

An excellent stop for Tea & Cake or Soup or Quiche is The Tea junction at Hulme End (1 mile) which is at the start of the Manifold Cycle Trail, a delightful place run by Rebecca. Rebecca holds Jazz music on every last Saturday afternoon of the month from 1pm.

The Manifold Inn (walking distance) <http://www.themanifoldinn.co.uk/>

The Manifold Inn at Hulme End (walking distance) serves good food, is family and dog friendly and with outdoor tables that catch the evening sun. They also do B & B.

Beresford Tea Rooms

In Hartington, The Beresford Tea Rooms (within the Post Office) serve cooked breakfasts, filled Derbyshire oatcakes (a must), cakes, tea & scones at reasonable prices.

Village Stores <http://www.thevillagestoreshartington.com/>

The local Village Stores serve fresh coffee (take-away only) as good as Costa. They also have a selection of home made sandwiches, cakes and homemade soup.

Charles Cotton <http://charlescotton.co.uk/>

The Charles Cotton Hotel, a little more 'Nouveau Cuisine' serve food.

Devonshire Arms <http://www.devonshirearms.co.uk/>

The Devonshire Arms, a cosy pub and formerly a Coaching Inn, serves amazing food; a particular favourite of ours. The landlord, David a true gentleman, certainly knows how to run a pub. Booking is essential.

Staffordshire Knot <http://www.thestaffordshireknot.co.uk/>

The Staffordshire Knot in Sheen, (2 miles) run by Jacky is a little treasure. Very quaint and cosy; food worthy of acclaim by Master Chef. May not be open during the week but surely will be at weekends. Note. Please check they are open!

Royal Oak at Hurdlow <http://www.peakpub.co.uk/>

The Royal Oak at Hurdlow (3 miles) has an extensive menu and the prices are reasonable. This comes recommended.

Royal Oak at Wetton <http://www.royaloakwetton.co.uk/menu.html>

The Royal Oak at Wetton (3 miles) is a charming and quirky local village pub that offers locally brewed real ales and continually changing guest ales. Ian, the landlord offers a wide range of freshly prepared, home-cooked meals from mixed grills and rustic casseroles to light bites (baked potatoes etc) using locally sourced produce. They also sell take-away real ales.

Packhorse Inn <http://www.thepack-horseinn.co.uk/>

The Packhorse Inn at Crowdecote (3 miles) is a very charming local village country pub which is frequented by many locals. This is another of my firm favourites. Try the seabass with samphire! Also the view from here if you drive through Sheen along a ridge of hills is like nothing else; sheer joy.

And there's more, Biggin Hall Hotel, The Isaak Walton Hotel, The Waterloo at Biggin, The Greyhound at Warslow.....

What's On and Markets <https://www.visitpeakdistrict.com/whats-on>

There is a very large Market held in Chesterfield (18 miles) on Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays and a flea market on Thursdays. Bakewell holds a very good Market on every Monday. Bank Holiday Mondays are particularly good. Farmers' Markets are held in Buxton on the first Thursday of every month and every Saturday in Bakewell. There is a small outdoor and indoor Market in Leek every Wednesday (and the parking is very cheap). There is a very good Car Boot in Bakewell every Sunday morning. Please see the 'what's on' link on the website as that details all of the markets and also many local events.
